

POLICY ON SECURITIES TRADING

The Board has adopted a policy and procedure on dealing in the company's securities by directors, officer and employees which prohibits dealing in the company's securities when those persons possess inside information. It also requires directors to notify the chairperson before trading in company securities.